

INVITATION TO SUBMIT YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS AS ORAL TALKS OR POSTERS

XXI Italian Ornithological Congress, 5th – 9th September 2023

deadline 31st March 2023

You are invited to submit your contribution to the coming 21st Italian Ornithological Congress, Varese, 5th-9th September 2023. Whether you want to present a talk at a symposium, a talk in a session or a poster, you are welcome to submit your proposal using the following link:

<https://www.cio2023varese.it/en/submit-proposal/>

No speaker should present more than one talk; nevertheless, it is possible to be author and co-author of an unlimited number of presentations and/or posters.

The following information needs to be provided for each contribution:

1. information about the contribution:

- Type of contribution: oral talk or poster
- Authors
- Title
- Presenting author (for talks)

2. placement within a symposium (for talks)

- Selected for a symposium (YES/NO, depending on whether your contribution has already been included in a proposed symposium)
- if YES, name of the symposium

3. abstract(s)

- English abstract: max 250 words (mandatory)
- Italian abstract: max 250 words (facultative, but highly recommended for Italian speakers)

The scientific committee can accept, reject or propose a different format (e.g. from oral talk to poster) for the submitted contributions, depending on available slots and contributions' quality.
